Market Update

Global equity markets witnessed volatility and inflation fears, with major indices ending in negative territory with effects more pronounced in European equity markets. Despite the geopolitical turmoil involving Russia and Ukraine and its effect on global markets, the gain in crude oil prices supported GCC financial markets. Barring Oman, all markets gained for the third consecutive month during February. Major regional markets closed in the green as indices discount the windfall gains from the sharp rise in crude prices as the Brent crude touched a high of USD 118 per barrel, levels last seen during 2012-13. There is a likely surge in crude demand as buyers shun Russian crude in anticipation of possible curbs on Russia oil and gas exports. All GCC markets gained for the month apart from Oman, which witnessed a loss of 1.5%. Abu Dhabi and Dubai equity indices were the biggest gainers among GCC, rising 7.1% and 4.7% respectively over the month. Qatar and Saudi Arabia equity indices also marked a gain of 3.6% and 2.6% respectively over the month. In line with its GCC peers, Kuwait's all share index gained 3.9%, supported by a continued up-trend in oil prices. Boursa Kuwait's Telecom sector was the top gainer, rising 10.9% followed by Consumer Discretionary at 7.6%.
